Rule 4732-9-01 (A) (2) (b) specifies requirements for admission to examination for the psychologist license relative to applicants applying for review of an

"equivalent" non-psychology doctoral degree. Effective July 15, 2000, the rule was amended to require that license applicants requesting credit for courses taken after July 15, 2002, evidence a specific number of hours in graduate coursework in four (4) content areas--(A) (2) (b) (i) through (A) (2) (b) (iv). This rule was promulgated with a typographical error, such that it states (i) through (ix)--it should have stated (iv). This has caused some confusion for the public and Board staff.

A typographical error is also corrected in that the word "substantive" is misspelled.
