5. What statute(s) does the rule implement or amplify? 5101.14, 5103.03
6. What are the reasons for proposing the rule?

The Ohio Department of Job and Family Services (ODJFS) provides federal funding to the public children services agency (PCSA) pursuant to Title IV-E of the federal Social Security Act. The Family First Prevention Services Act (FFPSA), enacted as part of Public Law (P.L.) 115-123, authorized optional Title IV-E prevention services funding for time-limited prevention services.

7. Summarize the rule's content, and if this is an amended rule, also summarize the rule's changes.

The federal changes allow agencies to receive federal reimbursement for Child Welfare prevention services that were not available through the current Title IV-E processes. Now these services and federal reimbursement are allowable through The Family First Prevention Services Act (FFPSA), enacted as part of Public Law (P.L.) 115-123, authorized optional Title IV-E prevention services funding for time limited prevention services for mental health, substance abuse, and in-home parent skill based programs for children or youth who are candidates for foster care, pregnant or parenting youth in foster care, and the parents or kin caregivers of those children and youth.

- 8. Does the rule incorporate material by reference? Yes
- 9. If the rule incorporates material by reference and the agency claims the material is exempt pursuant to R.C. 121.75, please explain the basis for the exemption and how an individual can find the referenced material.

This rule incorporates one or more references to the Ohio Revised Code. This question is not applicable to any incorporation by reference to the Ohio Revised Code because such reference is exempt from compliance with RC 121.71 to 121.74 pursuant to RC 121.75(A)(1)(a).

This rule incorporates one or more references to another rule or rules of the Ohio Administrative Code. This question is not applicable to any incorporation by reference to another OAC rule because such reference is exempt from compliance with RC 121.71 to 121.74 pursuant to RC 121.75(A)(1)(d).

This rule incorporates one or more dated references to a federal act or acts. This question is not applicable to any dated incorporation by reference to a federal act because such reference is exempt from compliance with RC 121.71 to 121.74 in accordance with RC 121.75(A)(2)(c).
